ATTENTION CREDITORS AND PARTIES IN INTEREST

This Plan sets forth how the Debtor proposes to pay claims. Creditors should review the Plan to determine how their claims will be treated. Creditors must exercise their own judgment in deciding whether to accept or oppose the Plan. Each creditor should read this Plan carefully and discuss it with its attorney. Anyone who wishes to oppose any provision of this Plan must file with the Court a timely written objection unless such objection is one provided for in Article IV, below. This Plan may be confirmed and become binding without further notice or hearing unless a timely written objection is filed. Creditors must file a proof of claim with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court in order to receive distributions under this Plan. Absent an objection by the Debtor or other party in interest, the Trustee shall pay claims as filed. All claims must comply with FED. R. BANKR. P. 3001 and secured claims must comply with FED. R. BANKR. P. 3001(c). Creditors claiming a right to interest should state the interest rate and the total amount of the claim, as of the case filing date, on the front page of the proof of claim.
